

TIM REID'S EMCEE INTRO

Tim Reid is the host of Australia's number one and longest running marketing podcast - The Small Business Big Marketing Show - that was awarded Australia's Best Business & Marketing Podcast at the 2018 Australian Podcast Awards.

Having launched his hit program 11 years ago and with over 500 episodes and three million downloads under his belt, it ranks on Apple iTunes and Spotify above podcastcastillos with much bigger budgets, helping Tim build a global audience of motivated business owners.

His show is also available on Virgin Australia flights around the world.

Tim is also the author of The Boomerang Effect - a game changing marketing text focussed on helping you generate more sales.

He now travels the world showing business owners how to generate warm leads and build loyal customers, without spending a fortune.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome ... Tim Reid.
